Press Release and Invitation to the course for young Journalist in Malta cofunded by the European Parliament

"Training course for young journalists, content creators, and information professionals in Malta from 1st to the 3rd day of February 2024"

What are the democratic and representative mechanisms at the base of the European Union? How do they work and what are the relationships between European institutions? And, above all, how can the communication gap perceived between the European Union and Maltese citizens be reduced through journalistic work? European elections 2024 and the role of journalists, Voting system: socio-political context.

Trying to answer these questions together with many other questions, is the goal of the co-funded course of the European Parliament's Training Program for young journalists to be held in Malta from February 1 to 3, 2024. The course is organised by the Gazzetta di Malta of the Italian Maltese Chamber of Commerce and Will Italia, the most important Italian digital magazine with over 1.5 million followers, and offers the opportunity to 20 people to participate with an innovative training and professional networking path.

Journalists, communicators, and content creators with no more than three years of experience and who have already completed a first course of study (such as a bachelor's degree or a professional course) can apply.

On the last day of the event, it will be possible to interact with outgoing European parliamentarians.

To apply, simply submit the application form through this link
